Original home full of potential

There's no denying this home needs attention in some areas, however, with a little elbow grease you will be rewarded with a gorgeous character cottage. A double-fronted facade, three double bedrooms, and old-world features give renovators or new buyers the perfect bones for modernisation, and combined with a large landholding present space to extend the home's footprint if desired (STCA).

- Classic miner's cottage in largely original condition and begging for a revamp
- Old world features include a decorative fireplace, dado boards, and high ceilings
- Spacious eat-in kitchen boasting an electric oven and stainless steel dishwasher
